

ATEG 2017 “FIELD TRIP” THE ZIIBIWING CENTER

---

AUGUST 12, 2017

FOLLOWING THE CONCLUSION OF THE 2017 ATEG CONFERENCE

The Conference “Field Trip” is an ATEG Tradition; after the conference concludes, attendees visit a local landmark before heading home. This year’s trip destination is The Ziibiwing Center, described on its website as “a museum and cultural center built to share the history of the Saginaw Chippewa Indian Tribe of Michigan with the rest of the world.” Interested individuals will head to The Ziibiwing Center for a tour after the conference ends. (If interested, you can purchase your tickets at the center—this cost isn’t included in the conference fee). Check out the link below for more information on The Ziibiwing Center.
