

The Tenth Annual ATEG Conference, July 16-17, 1999
Raritan Valley Community College
Somerville, NJ

Brock Haussamen, Conference Coordinator

---

Program

Friday, July 16

8:30

Registration

9:00

Greetings and introductions; Martha Kolln, ATEG President

9:30

"What Grammar Should We Teach, and When -- an Inquiry," Ed Vavra

10:00

"We're Prescriptivists, Isn't Everyone?" Jim Kenkel and Bob Yates

10:30

Break

10:45

"Doing Implicit Grammar in the Writing Classroom," Rebecca Wheeler

11:15

"Correct me please: Screamin' Jay Hawkins, Slim & Slam, and the ranting and raving of radical rhetoric," Bob Lazaroff

11:45

"Community-Based Cloze Passages for Language Teaching," Connie Sekaros

12:15

Lunch

1:15

"Grammar With Style: What You Can Do With Sentences," Michael Kischner and Edith Wollin

2:00

"A New Approach To Teaching the Written Sentence, Grades 6 to 16,"

Mary Epes and Michael Southwell

2:30

"Computer-Assisted Grammar Instruction," Helene Krauthamer

3:15

Committee Meeting on Scope and Sequence

Saturday, July 17

9:00

Discussion of Scope and Sequence, Johanna Rubba

9:45

"Understanding and Using NP1 Constructions in English Grammar," Carl Gao

10:15

Break

10:30

"Explicit Knowledge of Grammar, Implicit Sensitivity to Word Order, and Verbal Ability,"

Steve Ware

11:00

"Adjective to Verb," Amy Benjamin

11:30

"Writing Profiles: A Painless Exercise in Grammar," Jim Brosnan